Introducing the MUSEUM ACCESS Classroom Series

Introducing the Museum Access Classroom Series, the solution to the summer slide kids experience over the summer break. Did you know it takes teachers approximately 5 weeks to get their students back on course after summer break? Our downloadable classroom series combines our 30 minute video on a variety of STEAM related topics, a corresponding Educational Fun Sheet loaded with fun facts and easy projects and a complete Lesson Plan with activities, projects and lesson extensions plus learning outcomes, standards and common core information. For one-on-one learning to larger groups, we'll help you bring your students to new levels of success with fun, thought-provoking challenges for all levels. Great for parents, teachers and

Museum Access Enjoys Parisian Nightlife

Tune in to your local Public Television/PBS stations as we visit The Bruce Museum in Greenwich, CT to learn more about post-impressionist artist Toulouse-Lautrec. He celebrated the entertainers of Parisian nightlife in the late 19th century including Jane Avril and Aristide Bruant in his colorful posters that adorned the streets of Paris. We also learn about the process of color lithography that Lautrec so loved at the Center for Contemporary Printmaking in Norwalk, CT. ## Museum Access Moments

Not to Miss... 'CAMP Notes on Fashion' Metropolitan Museum of Art, NYC

This exciting exhibition explores the origins of camp's aesthetic with over 250 objects dating from the 17th century to the present. It examines irony, artifice, theatricality and exaggeration in fashion. It's a fashion feast for the eyes! On view through September 8th.

Launched in 1841, the Charles W. Morgan is the last of an American whaling fleet that once numbered 2,700 vessels. With an 80 year whaling career, the Morgan embarked on 37 voyages, most lasting three years or more! See her at the Mystic Seaport Museum in Mystic, CT. Watch the episode clip here.

Out and About...

Leslie recently visited the Alexander Hamilton exhibition on Northerly Island in Chicago. "What a visually exciting exhibition! It's filled with technology seamlessly intertwined with history in fresh, creative ways. A completely interactive experience too!"

– Host, Leslie Mueller

Behind-the-Scenes

"Being on the flight deck of the legendary aircraft carrier Intrepid on New York's Hudson River was breathtaking, but standing below deck, home to the Space Shuttle Enterprise with Eric Boehm, Curator of Aviation was actually humbling. Knowing that it paved the way for America's successful Space Shuttle Program as we celebrate the 50th anniversary of the Apollo 11 Mission made it that much more special".
