

Enjoy this August Edition of the Museum Access INSIDER Newsletter
This is a great time for teachers, parents, homeschoolers AND students. Use this opportunity to Think Outside the Box when it comes to education!

Join the Creative Learning Revolution!

Our Museum Access team has jumped into action these past few months preparing companion educational materials for ea. of our episodes. Why not explore some of our nation's top museums with host, Leslie Mueller? Then continue the learning with Fun Sheets loaded with fun facts and DIY projects, Conversation Sheets for more discussions and our Classroom Series, complete standards-based lesson plans on a variety of topics. ### Escape to the Met!

Yes! It's time to reunite with the Metropolitan Museum of Art collections. Saturday Aug. 29th the doors will open once again. As museum President Daniel Weiss noted, "This year has been a great reminder that art has the power to bring comfort, inspire resilience, and help us better understand each other and the world around us."

Japanese Ninja Museum Heist

State-of-the-Art Animation

After seeing the 'Masterpieces of Cartoon Art' exhibit at the Bruce Museum in Greenwich, CT. we visited New York City's Nathan Love Studios to see state-of-the-art animation. What a giant leap from the hand-painted animation cells from Disney Studios of yesteryear to today's computer generated 3-D animation! Fascinating! Click here for a quick peek.

To continue the fun, check out the animation Flip Book Kit and Light Pad, part of our curated toy collection. Click here to purchase.

Museum Access Moments

Thanks Kristin! We love the Met too and look forward to it's re-opening this week. Hope to see you there!

E-mail us your favorite Museum Moment for a chance to win a great lens kit for your smart phone to take even cooler pics and a chance to be featured in our INSIDER

More than 1 million yen was stolen in the middle of the night from the popular Ninja Museum, located in the city of Iga, Japan, a center for Ninja enthusiasts. The thieves broke in the front door of the museum and left with the 330 lb. safe in a matter of minutes.

Another Creative Spirit!
Bravo to ambitious little Miss Ava who attacked 2 colorings at once! Nothing like getting those creative juices flowing!

Behind-the-Scenes

"As I talked with tennis great and International Tennis Hall of Fame CEO, Todd Martin, I was struck by his contagious enthusiasm for everything related to tennis. I remember seeing him play as a pro and it only seems fitting that he is now a great spokesperson for the sport at this incredible Newport, RI landmark."
