Museum Access Profile

This month we are featuring the journey of the Wild Center Nature Museum curator, Leah Valerio. Seems she was destined to work with wildlife even as a child. What a treat to see her in action during our visit to this spectacular museum in the breathtaking Adirondacks. Worth a visit any time of year!

Behind-the-Scenes: American Heritage Museum- Stow, MA

"Driving this WWII M4 Sherman Tank is tied for my personal #1 thrill along with the flight on the B-17 Bomber several years ago. Both were compliments of the Collings Foundation. This museum truly brings history alive with world- class collections of aircraft, classic automobiles, tanks and more. I'm so happy to include the American Heritage Museum in our upcoming Season 4."
