Mayflower II Returns to Home Port

After a restoration that began in November of 2016 in CT. at the Mystic Seaport Museum's shipyard, the Mayflower II was officially launched and re-commissioned this past Fall. There was a ceremonial christening before she was lowered into the Mystic River for her journey back to Plimoth Plantation in Plymouth, MA. We have fond memories of seeing the restoration in progress in Season 2. Check out the episode on Amazon Prime Video.

NOT TO MISS... The New MOMA

After being closed for months for a $450 million renovation, the Museum of Modern Art in NYC has reopened. With 30% more gallery space to explore, you'll need to allow time to see everything this world class museum has to offer.

This month we are featuring the profile of Matt McKee. A fascinating journey from Nuclear facilities to the Chicago Federal Reserve Money Museum. Enjoy...and stay tuned for the full episode in Season 3 this Spring. Here are a few of the great museums we'll be exploring.

Our Mission

MUSEUM ACCESS lives at the intersection of Education, Entertainment, and Inspiration. We believe in the power of museums to ignite the imagination and inspire learning by opening their doors to everyone...regardless of age, income, ethnicity or geographic location. Our mission is to increase the appreciation of the learning opportunities these national treasures offer and bring the knowledge to those that may never have the opportunity to visit one of our country's many wonderful museums in person by bringing the museums to them through our public television series.

If you believe in our mission, please consider a tax-deductible donation today.

Although the recent fires in Los Angeles were near the spectacular

J. Paul Getty Museum, we were assured that our photography shoot would not be effected thanks to careful planning during construction including using more heat tolerant materials such a travertine marble and glass, plus clearing the flammable brush around the property. Thankfully, the fires were contained and our shoot was a complete success. Stay tuned for airings nationwide this Spring.

Behind-the-Scenes

AKC Museum of the Dog

"OK, I'll admit it, I LOVE dogs...all breeds. Visiting the AKC Museum of the Dog in NYC was something I'd been looking forward to for weeks. It did not disappoint. From canine art of all types, to a face recognition based exhibit called 'Find Your Match'...scary, I know. To a digital pup named 'Molly' that you can try your hand training, it was a great afternoon with Executive Director Alan Fausel leading the way, with his beloved dog Gemma by his side."
