COVID and the World of Art

Center Stage:
Intrepid Sea, Air & Space Museum

The Intrepid Sea, Air & Space Museum in NYC has re-opened. Home to the space shuttle Enterprise, the world's fastest jets, a cruise missile submarine and much more, all aboard this mighty WWII era ship. New for guests is the recently restored Pilot Elevator AND a peek into one of the Intrepid's bomb elevators. Learn more in our episode on Amazon Prime Video. Check out our Intrepid trailer for a quick look!

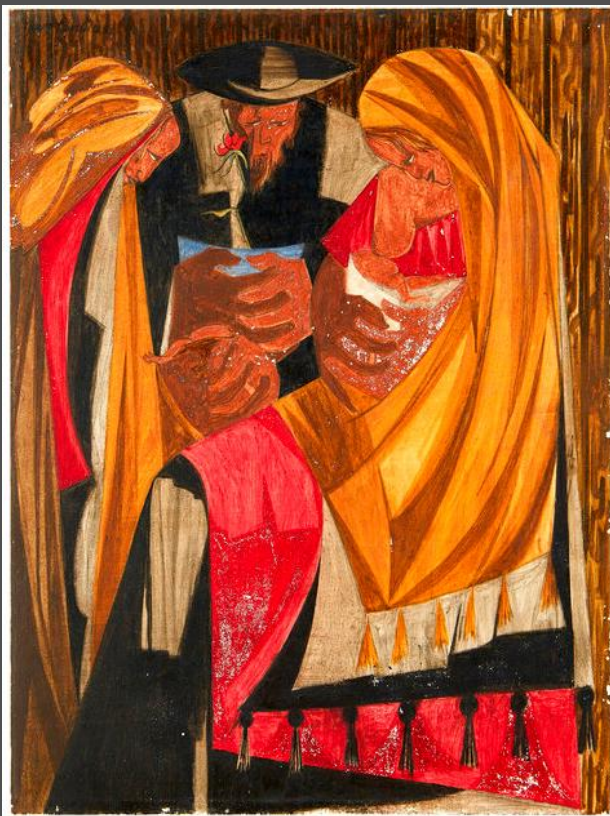

Continue the Fun!

Learn about the History of Flight

Think the Sistine Chapel would've looked a little different if Michelangelo was painting its ceiling today?

Important Piece of America's Black History Found

One of 3 missing panels painted by acclaimed American artist Jacob Lawrence has recently been located in a Manhattan from the first Wright brothers Kitty Hawk to the Space Shuttle. Models of the Sprit of St. Louis and the famous F-18 Blue Angels Hornet will have kids of all ages enjoying hours of educational fun! Click here to purchase.

Museum Access Moments

We know how easy it is to get lost in special exhibitions but 5 hours must be some sort of record Susan. Good for you! Thanks for sharing!

Behind-the-Scenes:

Intrepid Sea, Air & Space Museum

"There's nothing quite like being on the flight deck of the Intrepid aircraft carrier on a beautiful day, surrounded by history, science and service to our country. Aircraft restoration specialist Dina Ingersole enthusiastically shared her knowledge about everything from 'nose art' to paint color choices in the shadow of one of the Blue Angels aircraft in the private restoration area."
