BUCKLE UP FOR SEASON 8!

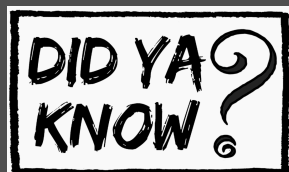

We're knee-deep in the editing phase of our brand new season of Museum Access. This season is our 'Salute to America', from USA Olympians, to world famous authors, artists and astronauts. We celebrate America's first law school, an 1787 courthouse, Lake Champlain's Ticonderoga steam boat, early aviation and firefighting, law enforcement and an incredible Gilded Age mansion with a world class Tiffany glass collection. We can't wait to share these great museums with all of our viewers, so stay tuned as we put all of the finishing touches on this season and prepare to launch on Public Television / PBS stations nationwide.

TEAM USA VICTORIES THROUGH THE YEARS

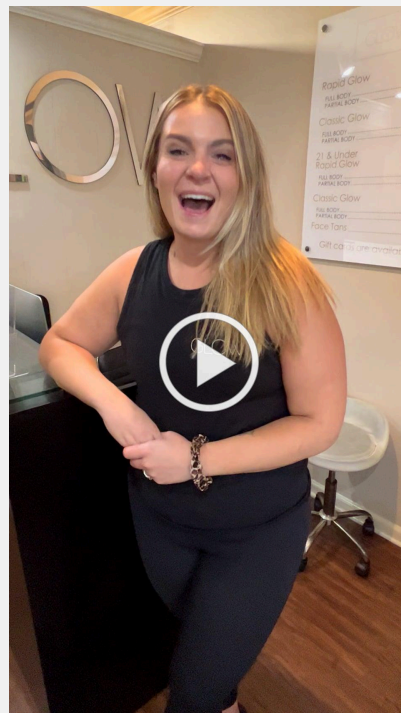

Lake Placid was all abuzz once again as folks gathered at viewing parties to witness the many team USA victories at the Winter Olympic in Milan. The Lake Placid Olympic Museum was a hub of activities reminiscent of the 1980 Winter Olympics held in Lake Placid and the exciting USA Hockey Team victory. During our visit we learned about what it takes to be an Olympian, the history of the Olympic Games, a behind-the-scenes peek and of course, a visit to the rink where all the magic happened in 1980. Stay tuned for this very special episode.

MUSEUM ACCESS MOMENT

Researchers have found that after over 5,000 years in a sarcophagus, mummified bodies in ancient Egypt vary in the intensity of their odors. All 9 mummies were described as smelling woody, spicy and sweet. Further research is being done to identify specific embalming ingredients.

We love the Mashantucket Pequot Museum too. Incredible figures and dioramas throughout! Thanks for sharing Haley!

What a treat it was running into fellow travelers, lifelong learners and Public Television hosts Samantha Brown and Peter Greenberg at the recent New York Travel Show. They both gave great presentations to a packed audience, all eager to learn from these travel gurus.

BEHIND – the – SCENES:
The People's House Experience
Washington, D.C.

“As our country celebrates it’s 250th Birthday this coming July, visiting The People’s House: A White House Experience for the upcoming season held special meaning. This replica of the White House filled with stories of our country’s history in a totally immersive way was mind blowing. From the oval office to the cabinet room to a state dinner, we were spell bound all day long. We can’t wait to share this episode with all of our viewers!”
