

Museum Access: Sue the T-Rex

SEASON 1 - EPISODE 2

Question 6

How can the study of dinosaurs and fossils help us understand how life has changed over many millions of years?

More Talking Points:

1. Why is learning about the past important?
2. Can we use information from the past to help us in the future? How?

Question 7

What can studying dinosaur bones tell us about their everyday life?

More Talking Points:

1. What have scientists learned about life on Earth from studying dinosaurs?
2. What have scientists learned about how dinosaurs interacted with each other and other creatures?

Question 8

Discuss the differences between dinosaurs and modern animals.

More Talking Points:

1. Discuss the similarities between dinosaurs and modern animals.
2. How have scientists used their knowledge of present day animals to better understand dinosaurs?

Question 9

When preparing Sue for display what things were considered?

More Talking Points:

1. How is Sue the T-Rex cleaned?
2. Why is it important to share research with other scientists?

Question 10

Scientists are always learning and making new discoveries. Discuss how scientists knowledge and understanding of Sue the T-Rex and other fossils has changed overtime.

More Talking Points:

1. What does it mean to be brave?
2. Do you consider yourself a brave person? Why?

