

Museum Access: Museum of Broadcast Communications

SEASON 1 - EPISODE 7

Question 6

If you created a broadcast (radio, tv, or on-line) program, what would it be about?

More Talking Points:

1. Who would you invite to be your guests?
2. Who would your target audience be?

Question 7

Do you watch more broadcast or cable television?

More Talking Points:

1. What do you watch and why do you enjoy it?
2. How would you improve the program?

Question 8

Do you prefer audio content (radio, podcasts, etc.) or visual content (television, YouTube, etc.)? Why?

More Talking Points:

1. What do you find valuable in audio and visual content?
2. Do you watch one type of content more than another?

Question 9

Where do news broadcast producers get their show content?

More Talking Points:

1. What influences the content they choose to share?
2. What skills does a producer need to create memorable broadcasts?

Question 10

Discuss the importance of freedom of speech in the media.

More Talking Points:

1. How has the freedom of speech been presented in the media?
2. How has the media been impactful in politics over the last decade?

