

Enjoy this September Edition of the Museum Access INSIDER Newsletter
As America's museums continue to open,
it's time to safely visit once again to continue learning!

As our Museums Re-open Visit Them in Style!

Discover how easy your next museum visit can be with one of our stylish, multi pocket travel bags. Our curated On-the Go Collection of handbags, cross body bags and totes won't break your budget and they're loaded with pockets for everything you'll need for a day of museum adventures. Click here to learn more!

We're Stepping Up with the DCMP!

We are extremely excited to announce that our series is now available through the Described and Captioned Media Program. The DCMP is the leading source for accessible educational content for students who are blind, visually impaired, deaf, hard of hearing or deaf-blind. Teachers and parents across the country can now take advantage of our museum adventures as an exciting remote learning resource. The DCMP, U.S. Dept. of Education and the Going BACK to the Dogs!

The AKC Museum of the Dog in NYC is officially open once again. With one of the finest collections of canine-related art in the country and plenty of cutting edge technology exhibits, you can easily spend the day. Click here for a sneak peek at our recent visit. Check out the full episode on Public Television and on Amazon Prime anytime!

To continue the canine fun, try your hand at training the Interactive Plush Puppy Toy from our curated Museum Access Toy Collection. Click here for more details.

Museum Access Profiles

This month we are featuring the journey of Khristaan D. Vilella, Ph.D, Executive Director of the Museum of International Folk Art in Santa Fe, New Mexico. Learn how Khristaan's rich background led him to the fascinating world of folk art. Click here to National Association of the Deaf are all committed to equal access to communication and learning through educational media and we are proud to be a part of this effort. Click here to see our programs.

take a quick peek at our visit to this world class museum. View on Public Television and on Amazon Prime anytime.

Tourist Breaks 19th Century Sculpture

An Australian tourist in Northern Italy recently broke off two toes of the Antonio Canova sculpture while taking a selfie. It was the original plaster cast model, made in 1804 for the marble sculpture of Paulina Bonaparte that is housed at the Galleria Borghese in Rome. The tourist has turned himself in to authorities. The Italian court has not yet decided whether to press charges.

Behind-the-Scenes:

Northwestern Memorial Hospital

"After learning about the invention of the x-ray during our visit to Chicago's International Museum of Surgical Science, it was fascinating to meet Dr. Sameer Ansari of Northwestern Memorial Hospital to see state-of-the-art technology in diagnostic imaging. In this episode we even watched an actual brain procedure in progress".

Host – Leslie Mueller

Join the Museum Access journey with a tax deductible donation through the National Educational Telecommunications Association (NETA 501(c)(3))

DONATE

Please like us on Facebook and be sure to follow us on Instagram. Season 1, 2 and 3 trailers are on our website now. Catch us on your Public Television/PBS stations or anytime on Amazon Prime.

Like our newsletter? Share with a friend!

Museum Access Media, LLC. | www.museumaccess.com
MA Insider © 2020 All rights reserved.

